

"I HAVE MY WORK CUT OUT, HELPING THOSE WHO HAVE HAD THEIR WORK CUT OUT"

Hundreds of thousands of Australians know first-hand the poverty and despair caused by unemployment.

At the Brotherhood of St Laurence, we offer training and direct support to the jobless and homeless people; provide clothing and material assistance to families in difficulty; and care for frail older people.

The Brotherhood of St Laurence works to overcome the disadvantaged circumstances that prejudice the lives of many Australians. By empowering those most in need, the Brotherhood practises its commitment to long-term solutions for people caught in poverty.

The Brotherhood succeeds because it is backed by people who care for the future and is financially supported by people who are committed to the future.

But to continue, we need everyone's help. Please support our work by becoming a personal or corporate supporter and forwarding your tax deductible donation to the Brotherhood of St Laurence, 67 Brunswick Street, Fitzroy, 3065.

Your support will make a difference.
