BROTHERHOOD WEEK 9-15 August

◆ Sunday 9th

People against poverty !

Show you care by joining a procession into the city. Begins with midday lunch at 67 Brunswick Street, Fitzroy. Bring your friends. It's safe and we promise you won't get arrested.

◆ Monday 10th

Barbecues galore !

What better way to celebrate the anniversary of St Laurence (who was roasted on a grid iron in AD 276) than a barbecue. Refer to your local region for location. Brotherhood volunteers, clients and staff are all invited. Starts at 12.00pm.

The past on parade !

The Library at 67 Brunswick Street will have a display of our past. Negotiations are still underway to include the famous Fr Tucker belt buckle. Stay tuned for further details.

◆ Tuesday 11th

Settle in for the Sambell Oration !

The man who won Pick-A-Box is back. The Hon. Barry Jones will tell us how he sees the Future of Work. 6.00pm, University of Melbourne, 2nd floor Student Union. $5 door charge. RSVP to Hazel (03) 419-7055. A great public speaker - avoid disappointment and book now.

◆ Wednesday 12th

Re-live the early days !

Laurie O'Brien and David Scott tell us about the early life of the Brotherhood. 12.30pm, Staff Tea Room, 67 Brunswick Street. Light lunch provided. RSVP Lori Ellis 419-7055.

Be hypnotised by our Hypothetical !

A fascinating and diverse group of people have been assembled for a hypothetical on Making the future work. A lot of fun - high profile panel including CSIRO Chairman Professor Adrienne Clarke, Dr Terry Cutler, Fabian Dattner and Helen Gow. Melbourne Uni, Prince Phillip Theatre. 7.30pm. $5 door charge. RSVP Sally (03) 419-7055. Could be the Brotherhood event of the year.

◆ Thursday 13th

Eat those words !

Drinks, dinner and a good old fashioned debate. The topic is We should give messages with our meals. Great value sit-down dinner. And great value entertainment from some of the Brotherhood's finest ! Cost is $15 per head. Bookings through Barry or Melissa 419-7055.

◆ Friday 14th

The Last shall be First !

We finish the week with another function for our clients. This time each service has decided on its own activity to commemorate St Laurence and the treasures of the church. Some are planning morning tea while others are hoping to stage a lunch. Refer to the regional offices for details.

BUT IT AIN'T OVER YET

◆ Saturday 15th

All the Fun of the Fair !

Stalls, food, activities and fun will combine to make this Metro event a Fair to remember. Includes an Open Day. Starts at 10.00am in Palmer Street (off Brunswick Street, Fitzroy). Good times assured and enjoyment guaranteed.
