THE BROTHERHOOD OF ST LAURENCE: A HISTORY

by the Honourable and Reverend Professor Brian Howe AO and the Right Reverend Andrew Curnow, introduced by Professor Park Peel of Monash University at 6.00 for 6.30 pm on Friday 21 November at St Peter's Eastern Hill, 15 Gisborne St., East Melbourne, in the hall. Light refreshments provided.

Location: St Peter's is on the intersection of Albert and Gisborne Streets, an intersection it shares with the Eastern Hill Fire Station, the Eye and Ear Hospital and St Patrick's Cathedral. St Peter's is easily identified by the prominent War Memorial Crucifix on the street corner.

Parking: Parking space is probably easiest to find in the vicinity of Clarendon Street; there are nearby commercial carparks on Albert Street. The 109 and 110 trams also stop at the Albert and Gisborne Sts intersection.
